On February 15th, 2017, at approximately 1752 hrs, Palm Bay Police Department responded to 103 NW Americana Blvd reference to a disturbance. Margaret Pastor was identified as the complainant who stated her son/Defendant, Andrew John Pastor, had locked himself in his bedroom and he was suffering from a lot of medical conditions. Margaret Pastor feared the Defendant was inside his bedroom hurting himself.

Police Officers Peter Dolci and Ofc. Duane Smith arrived on scene at approximately 1805 hrs. Upon the officers' arrival they were allowed inside the residence by Margaret Pastor. Upon entry into the residence both officers were confronted by the Defendant who was armed with a .38 caliber revolver. The Defendant threatened the officers with the handgun by pointing the handgun at the officers placing the officers in imminent fear for their lives. The officers defended themselves and shot several rounds at the Defendant in self-defense striking the Defendant on the right arm which immobilized the Defendant. First aid was rendered to the Defendant until paramedics arrived on scene. The Defendant was transported to Holmes Regional Medical Center for treatment of his injuries.

On February 15th, 2017, at approximately 1900 hrs, FDLE Agent Brad Lewis and Palm Bay Police Detective Ken Shedrick arrived to Holmes Regional Medical Center and conducted a sworn non-custodial interview with the Defendant. The Defendant stated when the officers arrived to his residence he was inside his bedroom with the bedroom door closed. The officers verbally identified themselves as they stood outside the Defendant's bedroom door. The Defendant ordered the officers to leave his residence by yelling at them through his closed bedroom door. When the officers refused to leave the Defendant warned the officers that he was going to count to three then he was going to exit his bedroom and start shooting. The Defendant stated he then counted to three and opened his bedroom door and stepped out in the hallway armed with his loaded .38 caliber revolver in his right hand. The Defendant was subsequently shot by the officers.

On February 16th, 2017, at approximately 0915 hrs, a post Miranda interview was conducted with the Defendant at Holmes Regional Medical Center. During the interview, the Defendant again stated he knew police officers were outside his bedroom door. Defendant stated he exited his bedroom holding his loaded .38 caliber revolver in his right hand so the police would shoot him because he wanted to end his life. Defendant stated he had been depressed for the past several days due to several medical conditions he is suffering from.

A search warrant for the residence was obtained. During the search of the residence a loaded .38 caliber revolver was located inside the Defendant's bedroom.

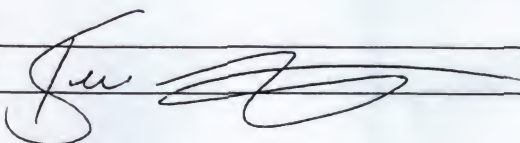

According to Trauma Physician Dr. Pessa, it appeared the Defendant was shot once in the right arm. The bullet entered near his right wrist and traveled upward and exited near his elbow. This is consistent with the Defendant having his arm raised outward when he was shot.

Probable cause has been established that indicates the Defendant committed the felony offense of two counts of ~~Attempted Murder to a Law Enforcement Officer~~.

Aggravated Assault with a Firearm to a Law Enforcement Officer.
